FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA.

CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant | nois, 50c. prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in each, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the inness, enables us to offer our services with confidence | sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering pros-pects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be and for sale by determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

MARKIAGES. At what age are ladies most apt to be mar-

An English virtueso has arranged a table of one thousand marriages, founded upon actual Registers, and has divided it into thirteen categories, each embracing the number of marriages, classed according to the age of the ladies at the time of contracting them; and he has found, Years of Age 32 marriages the ladies being from 14 to 15 16 to 18 219 18 t. 19 20 to 21 22 to 23 24 to 25 26 to 27 30 to 31 32 to 33 34 to 35 36 to 37

38 to 39 According to this table, it appears that from the ages of 16 or 17, to 24 and 25, the largest number of ladies are married: but the most considerable number, 233, is from the age of 20 to 21 .- Southern Literary Messenger.

We will add an illustrative little scrap to this curious statistical document, taken from a source familiar to literary circles, and which is entirely "germane to the matter." We find in the play of "Romeo and Juliet" that Italian females in Shakspeare's time were not only marriageable, but frequently mothers, at the age of from 12 to 14. Juliet herself, whose charms we must suppose were fully developed, and her growth consequently matured, was not 14 years old, for in Act. 1., Sc. 3, her mother expressly tells scene, she says to Juliet, by way of obviating an anticipated objection on the score of youth and thus win her daughter's consent to an
